The charming village of Billingshurst sits within close reach of the South Downs National Park and the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Walking down the main street in Billingshurst, you might be surprised at the number and variety of shops, restaurants and pubs it boasts for its size. You can get everything you need from the high street, lined with pretty period properties and some more contemporary buildings. Stop for a pint of local ale at one of the village's 16th-century pubs or pick up a coffee from the one of the cafe's.
